"Great Place To Work Certification is a highly coveted achievement that requires consistent and intentional dedication to the overall employee experience," says Sarah Lewis-Kulin, the Vice President of Global Recognition at Great Place To Work. She emphasizes that Certification is the sole official recognition earned by the real-time feedback of employees regarding their company culture. "By successfully earning this recognition, it is evident that Blue Stone Therapy stands out as one of the top companies to work for, providing a great workplace environment for its employees."

"The Blue Stone Therapy culture is really one where you can just be yourself. I can think outside of the box, be an individual, and really have the freedom to create," said Director of Clinical Services, Jolene Denn. "My primary role is to provide our therapists with resources and education so they can provide the best outcomes. It's awesome that our therapists recognize how great our culture at Blue Stone Therapy really is."
